

IQ Education Services and Solutions

Providing the knowledge to power accurate reporting, revenue cycle efficiency and improved compliance

The Intellis IQ education team believes “knowledge is powerful” and shares a passion for education and innovation. Our approach encourages collaborative partnerships and brings best practices, agility, and forward-thinking insight into healthcare training. Even as healthcare evolves, we meet education challenges by embracing a “we can do that” attitude.

Intellis education and training programs are led by our subject matter experts including adjunct professors from highly-regarded colleges and universities. Credentials among our instructors and presenters include AHIMA-Approved ICD-10 Trainers and Ambassadors, CCS, CCS-P, CPC, CRC, RHIA/ RHIT, MD, and RN.

Our courses are presented via live webinars, on-site presentations, conference discussions or on the IQ Education Center -- our online learning platform. Key areas of instruction include ICD-10 coding, CDI, CPT/HCPCS, HCC/Risk Adjustment coding, and E/M leveling. Courses supply the most current and relevant information, and most training solutions include AHIMA-approved and CME-approved CEU credits.
